Of the 15 men in the Majavica blockhouse, none are members of the Communist Party, and only one is a candidate for membership in the Party. Most of the men were anti-Communist and among themselves spoke bitterly against the regime.

6. On 5 August 1951 the Majavica blockhouse was ordered by the Company Headquarters to Stojakovo to increase the number of men at the guard post because five peasants from Stojakovo were going to attempt to escape
